(Electronically Submitted)

United States District Court	DISTRICT of ARIZONA
United States of America v. Dakota Ray MALLOT DOB: 1997; United States Citizen	DOCKET NO. MAGISTRATE'S CASE NO. 23-03090MJ
Complaint for violation of Title 18, United States Code, § 554(a)
On or about July 24, 2023, in the District of Arizona, Dakota Ray MALLOT knowingly and fraudulently exported and sent from the United States, and attempted to export and send from the United States, any merchandise, article, or object contrary to any law or regulation of the United States, and received, concealed, bought, sold, and in any manner facilitated the transportation, concealment, and sale of such merchandise, article or object, that is: one (1) 9mm Palmetto State Armory Dagger Compact Pistol with one (1) 9mm Magpul magazine, one (1) 9mm magazine, and (14) rounds of 9mm caliber ammunition, knowing the same to be intended for exportation contrary to any law or regulation of the United States, to wit: Title 50, United States Code, Section 4819; Title 15, Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 736.2, 738, and 774; all in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 554(a).
BASIS OF COMPLAINANT'S CHARGE AGAINST THE ACCUSED: On July 24, 2023, Dakota Ray MALLOT attempted to exit the United States and enter the Republic of Mexico through the DeConcini Port of Entry in Nogales, Arizona. Customs and Border Protection Officers (CBPOs) were conducting outbound inspections when they stopped a 2018 Mazda 3, bearing an Arizona license plate driven by sole occupant Dakota Ray MALLOT. A Customs and Border Protection Officer asked MALLOT if he had anything to declare such as money, weapons, or ammunition to which MALLOT claimed he had nothing to declare. CBPO's had MALLOT exit his vehicle and conducted an immediate pat down search for weapons in consideration of officer safety. Prior to the pat down, MALLOT stated that he did not have any weapons or sharp objects that may harm the officers. CBPO's discovered two 9mm magazines tucked in MALOTT's socks, one which was loaded with ammunition. When CBPO's conducted a further pat down search, CBPO's again asked if MALOTT had a weapon on him, to which he responded yes. CBPO's subsequently discovered one (1) 9mm Palmetto State Armory Pistol bearing serial number JJE71061 taped to the inside of MALOTT's left thigh. In total, the following were discovered during the search of MALLOT: one (1) 9mm Palmetto State Armory Dagger Compact Pistol with one (1) 9mm Magpul magazine, one (1) 9mm magazine, and (14) rounds of 9mm caliber ammunition. During a post Miranda interview, MALLOT admitted that he was going to be paid to take the firearm and ammunition from Tucson into Mexico to an individual. He also admitted that he did not have a license to export firearms, magazines, or ammunition into Mexico.
